

"It's better to be roasted than forgotten."

This week the "bone of contention" will be the wish bone, but wishes accomplish nothing without action. If you act on our suggestion this week it may be a big factor in bringing the wish to a reality. Here is a suit for you at $22 that will strengthen your credit, increase your face value and be a stepping stone on the road to success.

Other suits, $10, $15, $20, $25 and $28.

When you eat your salt pork to-morrow, look happy.

That Danville, Ill., explosion yesterday might have been one of "Uncle Joe" Cannon's fulminations.

The Quincy, Mass., Ledger has doubled the number of its columns with the installation of a new press, which means a doubling of its prosperity. The Times hopes.

Dr. D. K. Pearson's $50,000 check for Montpelier seminary has come very opportunely to make a thankful Thanksgiving; also Mrs. J. E. Ainsworth's check of $2,000 to Norwich university.

The Massachusetts superior court has decreed that a woman has a legal right to talk "when she wants to, where she wants to and to whom she wants to." Few men there were who were brave enough to dispute that in the first place, and, therefore, the superior court simply affirms the decision.

Fire insurance companies will find far better "risks" in Vermont when several towns interested shall have completed their plans for their protection from fire. St. Johnsbury, Bethel and Marshfield, for instance, which have recently experienced disastrous fires, are fortifying themselves against a repetition and are, thereby, showing a spirit of progressiveness.

In the death of Congressman De Armond of Missouri, whose life was lost in the burning of his home yesterday, the United States Congress lost one of those agents who act as checks on the careless acts of their colleagues. Although he was in the minority party, being a Democrat, he is now said to have been quite effective in criticizing lax methods of dealing out appropriations; and in that capacity he served his country well.

St. Albans is finding herself more interested in the labor troubles in the granite belt than she used to be, because she is about to share in the profits and the risks of this great industry herself—St. Albans Messenger.

Bless you, don't get your appetite whetted overmuch, for there is a good deal of the bitter along with the sweet. Just as you think you are getting to a nice, rich, juicy piece of white meat, someone shakes the salt-box most vigorously.

President Taft would be the last one to assume the credit for the recent victory over the Standard Oil concern, since the prosecution was instituted under the administration of President Roosevelt.

The New York World, which rushes to applaud Taft for the victory, will defeat its own purpose, as the Springfield Republican points out. The claim that Taft is responsible for the verdict will not stand the test of analysis for a moment, and it would be damaging, as well as ungenerous, for President Taft to take to himself the praise for the successful issue.

BURLINGTON AS FIELD FOR POLITICIANS.

Jed P. Ladd "of Burlington" is being advanced as a candidate for state auditor to succeed Horace F. Graham, and there has been quite a similarity of "letters from the people" in the Burlington papers, advancing his interests. Not long since, Mr. Ladd was one of Grand Isle's industrial citizens, and people are surprised to see him credited to Burlington. However, his boomers state, "At present Mr. Ladd is located in Burlington, where he is practicing his profession." That reminds us that once recently Roger W. Hurlburt of Hyde Park was "at present located in Burlington for the practice of his profession," but he soon forsook the shores of Lake Champlain for the familiar fields of Lamoille county. Aspirants for political preferment sometimes change their locations, either because of the obscurity of their home town, or the fact that the town has too many seekers for honors; and Burlington is a more natural town for them to go to than, say, Brattleboro or Newport. It is not stated for an absolute fact that Mr. Hurlburt went to Burlington with a purpose to rise politically; nor is it satisfactorily explained why he so soon deserted the city of his adoption. And the removal of Jed P. Ladd from little Grand Isle county to the most populous city of Vermont is not explained, either, by the fact that he hoped to gain in political support by going there; but the advancing of his candidacy so soon afterwards leads the suspicious to believe so. Nevertheless, that does not affect his qualification for the state auditor's position.

MONTPELIER

Check for $50,000 Received from D. K. Pearson for Permanent Fund.

The check of $50,000 from D. K. Pearson, the Chicago philanthropist, for the Montpelier seminary endowment fund, was received yesterday by Principal E. A. Bishop, of the seminary. This check will be held until the seminary provides the sum of $100,000, upon the raising of which Dr. Pearson's gift was dependent. In case of failure of the seminary to perform its part of the contract, the check will be returned, which is very unlikely, although several hundred dollars now remain to be raised, and it will probably be necessary to draw on the guarantee fund pledged by Montpelier citizens. Certain shrinkages have made it necessary to raise more money. The report to Dr. Pearson must be made out tonight and it is hoped to raise the money before that time. A forceful letter was enclosed with the check.

A Bible class was formed yesterday at the Y. M. C. A., which will hold its meetings Wednesday evenings. State Secretary of Boy's Work Byron D. Clark of Burlington was the organizer. The ladies auxiliary will serve a supper the night of meeting, before the Bible study, and following the study basket ball will be played.

William Heggie, a conductor on the electric road, has been laid up with an injured knee.

A marriage license has been granted William H. Telford of Waltham, Mass., and Ruth Foster Byer of this city. Montpelier seminary is under strict quarantine, as it has been discovered that Harold Spaulding, one of the students, is ill with scarlet fever. It is not known where he contracted the disease. He went to Poulinville Friday with the seminary football team and was taken ill on the way home. The case did not develop sufficiently to be properly diagnosed until yesterday, when there was no doubt but that it was scarlet fever. The school was to close today, and many of the students had already departed to their homes before the institution was quarantined. The vacation, which was to have lasted one week, has been extended another, and most of the students who had been near Spaulding are now confined at the seminary, so there is little danger of an epidemic.

The Berlin Construction company of Hartford, Conn., with a capital stock of $250,000, has filed corporation papers with the secretary of state and is to do business in Essex Junction. It is incorporated to do general construction business, decorating, building, etc.

The tenth annual meeting of the Vermont International Comity commission was held yesterday at the Y. M. C. A. building. Representatives of the four departments of the commission were present and the meeting was the most helpful in the history of the organization. A public meeting of the commission will be held next year while the legislature is in session.

Dr. Charles NeWcomb is suffering from blood poisoning in one thumb, caused by running a piece of steel into it. The wound had to be opened this morning.

Frank O. Jangraw and Miss Persia E. Woodworth, who were married yesterday, left immediately after the ceremony for a week's wedding trip, driving to Waterbury.

Thanksgiving Turkeys And Other Good Things!

The great annual feast comes this week Thursday. Chief in importance of course, for "the big dinner" is the Turkey. Every prudent housewife knows that too much care cannot be exercised in selecting it.

We've here only choice Vermont bred and raised Turkeys. Corn-fed, stall-primed, plump, meaty birds weighing 6 to 18 lbs. No old tough fellows among them. All young, tender, this year's birds—and in mighty fine condition they are, too. Price, 20c to 30c lb. Handful of Parsley to garnish every bird.

Native Geese, excellent condition, weighing 9 to 13 lbs., price, 18c lb.

Ducks, as good as you ever ate, weighing 4 to 6 lbs., price, 20c.

Prime Native Chickens, same superior quality we've been selling all Fall, weighing 3 to 6 lbs., price 20c lb.

Broiler Chickens, ideal for the purpose, price, 20c lb.

Good Roasting Fowls, weighing 4 to 6 lbs., price, 18c lb.

Spring Lamb Roasts, bests, 18c lb.

Pork Roasts, finest cuts, 14 to 18c lb.

Of all appropriate side-dishes at Thanksgiving, Cranberries rank first. Selected, dark-red, full-flavored berries, 10c qt., 3 qts. 25c.

FRESH GREEN STUFF

Lettuce, head.....50
Crisp Radishes, bunch.....50
Appetizing Celery, bunch.....50
Cucumbers, each.....12c

COMFORTABLE AMBULANCE AT A MOMENT'S NOTICE

DUST

Dusty Friday No More

DUSTBANE

is a green colored powder, packed in tin cans ready for use. In sweeping a carpet, take one or two handfuls, according to the dust. Sprinkle where you are to begin (not all over the carpet), then sweep as you always do. The powder is swept ahead of the broom and falling on the carpets absorbs the dust, leaving the carpet clean and bright. The dust is not thrown into the air to settle back on the carpet and furniture.

DUSTBANE should be used in sweeping carpets, rugs, straw matings and bare floors.

WHY YOU SHOULD USE DUSTBANE
IT SAVES LABOUR IN SWEEPING
IT SAVES ONE-HALF YOUR DUSTING
IT SAVES YOUR CARPETS AND RUGS
IT SAVES DAMAGE BY MOTHS
IT SAVES TAKING UP CARPETS
IT SAVES YOUR HEALTH
IT SAVES YOUR MONEY.

SANITARY POINTS

SICKNESS AND DISEASE are often contracted by breathing into the lungs germ-laden dust. DUSTBANE contains an antiseptic fluid which kills germs. The evaporation of this fluid while sweeping thoroughly disinfects the room. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

It Costs Nothing to Try

BARRE GROCERS are authorized by the manufacturers of DUSTBANE to send you a 35c can of their Sweeping Compound. They want you to use this on trial for one week. At the end of this period if not found satisfactory we will take it back and there will be no charge for the quantity used.

If it does away with dust on sweeping days you want.
